Three's company, but four's a bonafide orgy, and apparently that's the objective this holiday season. Darius has all intentions of turning a routine evening of innocent fraternizing into a naughty night of passionate grinding and sharing. But this evening is anything but routine. It's Christmas Eve and Devin has brought along his finest piece of arm candy to commemorate the occasion. While the handsome pair of gents stand confident in their game, their fate lies in the gentle hands of one conflicted soul. Usually down for whatever, the poetic and charismatic Kai is in the stickiest situation ... challenged to please her man and feed her own desires, all while fighting the prissy ass voice of reason on her shoulder. Find out who ignites the group thang in a hardcore erotic tale where giving and receiving is equally embraced during the holidays.
