Dr. Hunt Bolts and his assistant, Chazz, travel to Bay, Iowa, a semi-rural town and location of the most recent Bigcock sightings. Dr. Bolts' mission, through eye-witness accounts, is to once and for all prove if the extremely well-endowed, seven foot tall, hairy chested half-man/half-dream lover exists...or is he just an legend. In story one, Dr. Bolts interviews Ms. Rose Mitchell, a young woman who claims to have encountered Bigcock in her back yard and had an experience that she says resulted in twenty orgasms within one night.
