Careena is the mother of his brother's mate but the second Tylar sees her he knows he must have her. He leaves the gathering before actually meeting her only to prevent embarrassing himself because he wants her that bad. Tylar is handsome like all the Mazlans Careena has met but she is drawn to him even if he doesn't even want to meet her. His attitude seems to change when he comes to her house to meet her. Can she trust him with her secrets and learn to lean on him? What if he turns out to be like the men of Earth? her heart can't take another disappointment. Note: Graphic and descriptive sex. For mature readers only.
