If these questions are keeping you awake at night, or even if they're only keeping you awake at work, your favorite Crabby Correspondent has all the answers.

Maxine has been around the block so many times she's worn the edges off, but her wit and wisdom are just as sharp as ever. More affordable than a shrink, more believable than a psychic, and more laughable than all the talk show doctors put together, Maxine is guaranteed to give you peace of mind. Or at least a piece of her mind.
