Everything she needs for a hot summer! Ten years ago, New York society princess Avery Shaw had the perfect holiday...right before her parents divorced. Now, desperate to recapture that lazy, carefree feeling, she's returning to tropical Australia's Crescent Cove to see her friend Claudia. Only everything is different! Claudia's busy working, there are creepy-crawlies everywhere...and deliciously ripped surfer Jonah North is always there at the wrong time. He's every kind of wrong—the lust is uncontrollable, and in her experience that always ends badly. But she's leaving in two weeks—can she really turn down a tough, sexy Aussie man?
