How intimately can a human being really know her pet? In this candid memoir, Linda A. Mohr shares her remarkable relationship with her affectionate and caring Siamese mix named Tatianna. A playful and joyful feline, Tatianna brings a spark of life to her human companion's home and teaches her owner more about love and devotion than Mohr could have ever imagined. It doesn't matter if Mohr's hair is unkempt, her spirits depressed, and her face a fright, Tatianna is always there, blue eyes focused, content to sit and purr on Mohr's lap, her soft fur stroked by loving human hands. But when her beloved Tatianna becomes ill, Mohr's heart aches. A battle ensues to save her pet's life—a battle they fight together but eventually lose.

The bond between them grows even stronger, nurturing a deeper communication, one beyond human understanding.

Mohr candidly describes how she grieves for her feline companion but even now feels connected to the faithful Tatianna who has never really left her side—she is simply in another dimension. Filled with the unconditional love between pet and owner, "Tatianna" is a must-read for anyone who has ever loved and lost a special animal friend.
