THE LAST PANDEMIC is a family friendly (teen and above) version of Steven Konkoly's post-apocalyptic sensation, THE JAKARTA PANDEMIC—authorized by Steven Konkoly and written by Robert Mason. THE LAST PANDEMIC: Cases of a highly lethal virus appear in major cities around the globe.

Most ignore the warnings signs. Alex Fletcher, Iraq War veteran, has read the signs for years.

With his family and home prepared to endure an extended period of seclusion, Alex thinks he's ready for the pandemic. He's not even close. The unstoppable H16N1 virus rapidly spreads across the country, stretching the fragile bonds of society to the breaking point. Schools close, grocery stores empty, fuel deliveries stop, hospitals start turning away the sick...

riots engulf the cities. As hostility and mistrust engulfs his idyllic Maine neighborhood, Alex quickly realizes that the H16N1 virus will be the least of his problems. To save his family and friends, Alex will have to do more than hide. He'll have to take the fight to enemy, wherever and whenever they appear. THE LAST PANDEMIC is a gripping, realistic story about the strength of family, friends and the will to survive.
