When Zachary's relatives show up for the family Christmas, there aren't enough beds to hold them all. So they end up sleeping in the craziest places -- like the bathtub and the porch swing -- and some of them stay up all night! Festive, colorful illustrations introduce family members in alphabetical order and show the unique place each has chosen to spend Christmas Eve. From Aunt Alison to Yancy the dog, the house is full -- but Zachary finds the best spot of all.
