The media had named it Gurughantal, a mysterious murderous mobile application that yields whatever is desired but leaves death in its wake. Three unsuspecting boys - Sandeep, Anish and Sougata steal it from the mobile phone of Ameira, the girl of their dreams. The motive - to fulfill their wishes. As they put their wishes across, their lives are flung into a maze of blood and mayhem. Getting sucked by Gurughantal into a vortex of murder, deceit and supernatural horror, they realise that their wishes are made in hell.
